University of Pittsburgh

European Union Center of Excellence & European Studies Center

FRENCH IMMERSION INSTITUTE 2012

Purpose: These institutes are designed for middle and high school French teachers, as well as French majors to broaden their cultural understanding of current events and international studies regarding French-speaking countries, to strengthen their French listening and speaking skills, and to share strategies for the teaching of French language and culture. We will be offering the following workshop spring, 2012

Les Elections Présidentielles et Législatives Françaises de 2012

Jean-Dominique Le Garrec

Consul Honoraire de France

et

Jean Pierre Collet

Ancien Consul Honoraire de France

samedi, le 17 mars, 2012

Program Director : Bonnie Adair-Hauck, Ph.D.
Time: 8:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. Room: 5200 Posvar Hall
Cost: $10.00 per workshop or $25.00 for three 2012 workshops.
Includes: ACT 48 credit, workshop; continental breakfast; lunch
For information contact: tst@pitt.edu

Pennsylvania ACT 48 credit available for participants.

*All activities are conducted in French****************

Sponsored by the European Union Center of Excellence and European Studies Center, University of Pittsburgh; the American Association of Teachers of French and by the Allegheny Intermediate Unit.